

Support Jackson Hole WILD

You understand the power of media to inspire action and transform our endangered planet. If you have liked the Jackson Hole Wildlife Film Festival over the last 20 years, you'll love our new brand: Jackson Hole WILD. And you'll be glad to know that we are bringing more films & stimulating speakers to Jackson Hole, each year.

We need your help to make it happen.

Click here to support us through Old Bill's Fun Run giving.

You will directly support TEDxJacksonHole and this year's WILD Festival: SCIENCE—with more than 40 hands-on exhibits and demos to inspire a real connection with the sciences that impact us every day!

Since 2011, TEDxJacksonHole brings the momentum and energy of TEDTalks to the greater Teton area. This year's theme = PASSION

This year, the Festival will have a SCIENCE theme, immersing you into the world of science through listening, feeling, touching, tasting & discovery!

OUR YEAR AT A GLANCE:

More than 3,000 people attended our programs including the Jackson Hole Wildlife Film Festival & Elephant Conservation Summit

400 filmmakers came to Jackson Hole from all over the world, including the UK, Kenya, and Iran

Emmy-nominated film, Wild Yellowstone, filmed here in Wyoming premiered at The Center for the Arts in 2016 with a sold out house

We supported local filmmakers to premiere their films including Our Local Epic and *Hunt for the Hidden Killer

We've hosted 20+ completely free programs and all others are moderate ticket prices
